FITZSIMMONS DUE TO ARRIVE HERE TODAY

"Rubie" Robert Will Be on Hand for Boxing Exhibition at Convention Hall Tomorrow.

Local fight followers are showing much enthusiasm in the boxing exhibitions which are scheduled to be held tomorrow night at Convention Hall. "Rubie" Robert Fitzsimmons, who is slated to meet Robert, Jr., the coming heavy-weight champion of the world, in the semi-final, is due to arrive in this city tonight on the Congressional Limited, while Willie Beecher, the New York slugger, will reach here from the South some time this afternoon.

On the arrival of Young Harry Lenny from Philadelphia the plans for the initial show of the Capital City Athletic Club will be completed, and nothing remains but the sound of the gong to send the boys into real action in the exhibitions.

Much interest among the local sports is being centered around the preliminary, which is scheduled to go ten rounds, between Kid Greck, the promising local feather-weight, and Battling Terry Jones for the District feather-weight championship. Both boys have shown their ability before, and as each packs a wallop the local fans are awaiting anxiously for them to start milling.

Joe Blackburne and Bert Green, who will meet in the curtain raiser, are ready and give promise of furnishing the fans with some action in the opening affair. The advance sale of seats is a great deal better than was expected, and one of the largest crowds in the history of the ring game in this vicinity will be on hand.

JIM COFFEY WINS.

Beats Carl Morris in Ten Round Fight.

New York, April 7.—In the greatest fight ever held in New York between heavyweights Jim Coffey defeated Carl Morris in ten rounds tonight at the New York Athletic Club.

It was one of those fights that had the crowd of 1,000, including the police, on its feet and yelling madly from the first round to the last. It was a grim and terrible battle, and at the finish Morris, the holder of all game men's title, was beaten by a knockout in the tenth round.

His right eye was cut wide open in the ninth round, his mouth split and his nose flattened. He took Coffey's hardest punches and never faltered until the tenth round, when he was knocked out by a left jab.

HAVANA IS DESERTED.

Americans Are Quickly Leaving the Island—Johnson Remains.

Havana, Cuba, April 7.—Havana was completely deserted this morning by the Americans who came to the island to witness the Willard-Johnson fight. All that remained after the 10 o'clock bout left the dock was Johnson. He was slated to leave soon for Kingston, Jamaica, there to catch a boat for England. The peaceful attitude of a week ago was shown again today. Willard was in the big arena and when he left the boat for Key West with most of the correspondents the town had a deserted appearance.
